

General Practitioner - MM6 Location - Full time

Bourke Aboriginal Corporation Health Service (BACHS) is an Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Service providing primary health care services initiated and operated by the local Aboriginal community to deliver holistic, comprehensive, and culturally appropriate health care to the community. BACHS provides a variety of programs under a Primary Health Care model and also offers Visiting Specialist Services.

BACHS is seeking a new GP with an interest in and/or experience in Aboriginal health. This is a truly flexible role with all work options considered. These may include:

- Fly in/Fly out (FIFO) three weeks on, 1.5 weeks off
- Locum posting for a fixed period
- Full time or Part time posting to Bourke including relocation allowance

Heavily subsidised housing and a vehicle are provided in addition to a generous daily rate. Salary packaging is also available to increase your take home pay.

The clinic operates from 8.30am to 5pm with no expectation of weekend work. The clinic is bustling and a central part of the community, servicing our locals with quality health care. We also have a great team of professionals working within the clinic and wider organisation with a focus on serving our community. Professional development opportunities and paid study leave are also on offer and will be negotiated with the successful candidate.

Bourke is situated in a spectacular outback location on the banks of the Darling River. Regular flights connect Bourke with Dubbo and Cobar. The town is served by a range of accommodation and dining options with the opportunity to also explore the surrounding region.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are strongly encouraged to apply for this position.

The successful candidate will need to have the following:

- AHPRA registration essential
- Registered professional membership with either RACGP or ACRRM
- Commitment to quality primary health care
- Medicare provider number
- Evidence of full COVID-19 vaccination
- Full Australian Drivers License
- Proof of completed CPD in the last 12 months

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are strongly encouraged to apply for this position.
